

StarTraining

Developing professional excellence

Medication Training

Administration of Medication Training Course

Course Highlights

- Target Audience: Suitable for all staff involved in medication administration, including healthcare assistants and support workers.
- Flexible Delivery Options: Participate in our open courses or opt for a bespoke training package tailored to your workplace needs. This course is available both online and in-person.
- Employer Support - We also support employers with quality audit tools for competence audits, ensuring that staff are fully competent in medication administration practices and comply with regulatory standards.

Course Details

- Cost per Delegate:
  - £70 per person
  - Bespoke sessions available (maximum of 15 delegates). Please contact startraining@nationalstar with any enquiry
- Duration: 3.5 hours

Learning Outcomes

By the end of this course, participants will:

- Understand the legal and ethical responsibilities related to medication administration.
- Recognise different types of medications and their purposes.
- To explore how to safely, store, dispose and administer medication through the identified routes.
- Be able to identify potential side effects and interactions of medications.
- Know how to maintain accurate medication records and documentation.
- Understand the importance of effective communication with individuals regarding their medications.
- Understand what an error is and what to do in the event of an error

Key Topics Covered

- The medication administration process and best practices.
- The role of the healthcare professional in medication management.
- Techniques for minimising medication errors.
- The importance of the individual's education and advocacy in medication administration.

Enhance your ability to provide safe and effective care by ensuring proper medication administration practices. Sign up today to improve the health and well-being of those you support!